

About Morven Park

MORVEN PARK

A National Register Historic Property, Morven Park was for 40 years the home and model farm of Westmoreland Davis, Virginia's 55th governor. Thanks to the vision and generosity of his wife, Marguerite Davis, Morven Park's 1,000 acres and elegant estate have been preserved for public appreciation.

EQUESTRIAN CENTER

The internationally known center hosts more than 30 equestrian events each year, including the spectacular Morven Park Steeplechase Races, elegant dressage competitions, and daring cross-country events.

WINMILL CARRIAGE MUSEUM

One of the few museum collections in the nation devoted to the world of horse-drawn coaches, carriages, and buggies, the Winmill Carriage Museum displays more than 40 vehicles and a large collection of harnesses and tack. Vehicles range from the utilitarian dairy wagon to the elegant Caleche, used by Grace Kelly in the movie The Swan, in which she portrayed a princess shortly before her own royal wedding.

CIVIL WAR HUT SITES

During the winter of 1861-62, Confederate soldiers from the 17th Mississippi Infantry Regiment camped at Morven Park, sheltered by log huts and well-fed by local residents. As archeological research continues at the camp site, visitors can tour the replica huts and learn about life during the Civil War.

MUSEUM OF HOUNDS & HUNTING

Both Gov. and Mrs. Davis were avid fox-hunters, so it is fitting that the Museum of Hounds & Hunting of North America makes its home at Morven Park. This collection of all things relating to fox hounds and hunting – from paintings and hunt attire to trophies and the horns blown by huntsmen – is located in the north wing of the Davis Mansion.

GARDENS & OUTDOOR AREAS

Journey from the wooded trails that lead past sparkling streams to the pastures where horses graze and equestrian jumps dot the landscape. Then enter the cool shadows of a boxwood garden within which every turn reveals yet another restful scene, from peaceful reflecting pool, to formal allees, and private knot gardens.
