Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Awards a Good Neighbor Grant to Morven Park

LEESBURG, VA – Morven Park is honored to be a recipient of a Good Neighbor Grant from the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation. The $35,000 grant will provide support to Morven Park’s education program that serves thousands of K-12 Loudoun County Public School students.

“We are very grateful that the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation has awarded us this grant,” said Gwyneth Mac Murtrie, Morven Park’s Director of Education. “The foundation’s support will play a key role in allowing us to teach civics education and 21st-century skills to LCPS students.”

This year, the Park was one of 12 organizations chosen from a pool of 106 applicants through a very competitive selection process. Since being launched in 2012, the Cooke Foundation’s Good Neighbor Grant program has provided over $1.2 million to non-profit organizations serving students in Northern Virginia, Maryland, and Washington, D.C.

Morven Park’s civics education program focuses on developing four core characteristics of an active, effective, and informed citizen: knowing your voice matters, examining current and complex issues, taking responsibility, and making an impact. Morven Park’s education team is currently on track to reach over 6,000 Loudoun County students during the 2017-18 academic year.
