LEESBURG, VA and CALABASAS, Calif. (October 14, 2021) – Television Production and Event Industry veterans Ben Biscotti, Tony Schubert and Bobby Rossi announced today that Calabasas’ renowned Holiday Road experience will expand to Morven Park in Leesburg, Virginia from November 26th through January 2nd. The enchanting walking trail is illuminated with larger-than-life holiday HYPERLINK "https://holidayroadusa.com/activities/light_displays" and iconic scenes will dazzle visitors across the DMV area, providing a safe and festive outing for guests of all ages.

Tickets for the must-see, over-the-top production are on sale now at <https://holidayroadusa.com/>

Holiday Road is the premiere holiday event. Expansive grounds filled with eye-catching, twinkling lights and installations will welcome visitors as they meander through the winding trail. Guests will be transported into a winter wonderland complete with everything from the North Pole, Elf Village, Gingerbread Lane, light tunnels, Christmas tree forests, and much more!

“We’re thrilled to introduce our annual Holiday Road event in an even bigger way this year by expanding to beautiful Morven Park in Leesburg, VA,” said founding team members Ben Biscotti, Tony Schubert, and Bobby Rossi in a joint statement. “We can’t wait for guests across the DMV area to experience the magic of Holiday Road and fully immerse themselves in an unforgettable winter wonderland.”

“Morven Park cannot wait to welcome guests from around Loudoun County and the region for this spectacular illumination event. We are honored to have been selected as the Holiday Road Virginia venue partner,” said Morven Park CEO, Stacey Metcalfe.

Committed to ensuring the safety of all patrons and staff, the event encourages attendees to follow all health and safety guidelines to prevent the spread of Covid-19.
